

IN THE SUPERIOR COURTS OF THE OCMULGEE JUDICIAL CIRCUIT STATE OF GEORGIA

STANDING ORDER ON VIDEOCONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS DURING STATEWIDE JUDICIAL EMERGENCY

The Ocmulgee Judicial Circuit has a calendar of scheduled court proceedings for this calendar year. The calendar may be accessed at http://www.eighthdistrict.org/cir\_ocmulgee.htm.

For the month of February, 2021, and in response to the Supreme Court Order halting jury trials in the State, this Order shall serve as notice that all proceedings on the Circuit calendar will be held as scheduled<sup>1</sup>, beginning promptly at 9:00 a.m. and will be wholly conducted by videoconference using Zoom,<sup>2</sup> unless the presiding Judge grants a request to conduct the proceeding in person or the presiding Judge decides in his or her discretion to hold the proceeding in person, or it is unlawful to hold the proceeding by video conference. In all civil and criminal proceedings, the presiding Judge shall have sole discretion and authority to determine whether the proceeding will be held in-person or by video conference.

The Judges will, during the month of February, 2021, evaluate the pandemic issues affecting our Circuit to enter an appropriate order for court appearances for March and thereafter.

Notices shall be posted for special set proceedings that shall be conducted by video conference.<sup>3</sup>

You may get the link to attend the Zoom proceeding by contacting the Superior Court Clerk's Office for the county in which the Superior Court proceeding will be held. Here is the contact information for each Clerk's Office in the Circuit:
